Let There Be Peace On Earth

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God as our father, brethren all are we;
Let me walk with my brethren in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me; let this be the moment now.
With every step I take let this be my solemn vow—
To take each moment and live each moment, in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

I Think Continually of Those Who Were Truly Great

I think continually of those who were truly great.
Who, from the womb, remembered the soul's history
Through corridors of light where the hours are suns
Endless and singing. Whose lovely ambition
Was that their lips, still touched with fire,
Should tell of the Spirit clothed from head to foot in song.
And who hoarded from the Spring branches
The desires falling across their bodies like blossoms.

What is precious is never to forget
The essential delight of the blood drawn from ageless springs
Breaking through rocks in worlds before our earth.
Never to deny its pleasure in the morning simple light
Nor its grave evening demand for love.
Never to allow gradually the traffic to smother
With noise and fog the flowering of the spirit.

Near the snow, near the sun, in the highest fields
See how these names are feted by the waving grass
And whispers of wind in the listening sky.
The names of those who in their lives fought for life
Who wore at their hearts the fire's center.
Born of the sun they traveled a short while towards the sun,
And left the vivid air signed with their honor.

Stephen Spender 1933

"As I was walking along, I looked up at the nighttime sky.
 I was passing under a tree,
 But rather than having the tree moving past the stationary sky,
 I imagined that the night sky was moving ..
 Pulled along by unseen chariots,
 With white horses or strong-armed, burly men
 Or brilliant, blue seagulls.
 For a split second,
 The sky was a huge, blue tapestry;
 perforated with tiny holes;
 Illuminated from above by some unseen light."

after Li Po...

And if you ask how I regret that parting:

It is like the flowers falling at Spring's end.

Confused, world in a tangle.

What is the use of talking, and there is no end
of talking;

There is no end of things in the heart.
