Personal belongings

Personal belongings (backpacks/bags/coats) are allowed in the Belfer classroom only when no Belfer collection materials are being used. When pieces from the Belfer collection are being used in the instruction session, we ask that all personal belongings be put in the coat room across from the classroom.

Writing Utensils

As long as Belfer Audio Archive collection material is not present, there are no restrictions on writing utensils. When Belfer collection material is being used we ask that students use only pencils and loose paper we provide.

Set up

Tables/Chairs can be configured in different ways. It is best to arrange this prior to collection material being place in the classroom. When class is finished please return tables and chairs to original configuration.

Lights

The Lights will automatically come on when you enter the Belfer classroom. To turn the lights off press the bottom button on the light panel on the West wall. All lights and equipment must be shut off at the end of class.

Sound Levels
The Belfer classroom is adjacent to Staff offices and the Audio Preservation Lab. Please keep voices and audio at a reasonable level. If louder than normal volume is needed for a demonstration, etc., please communicate this to the Special Collections/Belfer Staff before the class occurs.
