

Long-Term Use Private Study Rooms Policies and Procedures

Syracuse University Libraries have 65 small private study rooms available for long-term use by researchers. Located on the perimeter of floors 4 and 5, the rooms are equipped with a desk, chair, electrical outlet, and wireless network connection. Some study rooms have windows. The rooms have a 16 week loan period and are renewable.

These study rooms are for individual use and are intended as quiet, private space for research and writing. All occupants are expected to use their study room at least 3 times per week during the semesters.

Eligibility

The following populations are eligible to use Long-Term Study Rooms:

- Current Syracuse University faculty members conducting research or writing. Preference will be given to those actively working on a publication.
- Syracuse University doctoral candidates, matriculated in a PhD or professional doctoral program, with a status of ABD (all but dissertation). The Libraries will confirm your ABD status with your department.
- Students enrolled in courses but not admitted into a doctoral degree or certificate-granting program are not eligible for long term rooms.
- SUNY- Environmental Science and Forestry faculty and students are not eligible for long term rooms.

Application Process

- New applicants must apply using an online request form at http://library.syr.edu/services/space/study_room_form.php
- Long-term study rooms are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis to applicants who meet the eligibility requirements.
- Although the rooms are for individual study, eligible doctoral students and faculty may elect to share a study room. All occupants must meet the eligibility requirements for using the Long-Term Study rooms. If sharing is desired, please note this on the Study Room Application form or by emailing studyroom@syr.edu Scheduling use of the room is the responsibility of the individuals sharing it.
- The Libraries will maintain a wait list of eligible applicants. The Libraries will notify waitlisted individuals via email as soon as space becomes available.

Check-Out and Renewal

- The assigned study room key will be checked out to the patron for a 16 week period.

- The room may be renewed as long as the patron continues to meet eligibility and use requirements.
- Occupants must renew online in My Account at <https://summit.syr.edu/vwebv/login>
- Email renewal reminders are sent shortly before each due date.
- Requests for renewals will receive priority over new applications.
- Rooms that are not renewed will be assigned to other users on the waiting list.

Key Return

- Individuals who do not renew their study rooms must return their keys to the Circulation Desk in Bird Library.
- Individuals who do not return a key on time will accrue a fine of $1per day.
- If a key is not returned, the patron will be charged a lock replacement charge of $50 in addition to fines.

Study Room Use Policies

1. All Syracuse University Libraries' policies apply to study rooms.
2. Private study rooms are intended for individual study only.
3. Private study rooms are intended for research and writing only. Use of study rooms for other purposes may result in the loss of study room privileges or other appropriate actions.
4. Private study rooms are for the use of the individual to whom the room is assigned. A study room assignment may not be transferred.
5. Eligible faculty/doctoral students may request to share a study room as indicated in the application process above. Individual study is still required in shared assignments.
6. The Libraries reserve the right to monitor the frequency with which study rooms are used and to revoke privileges for those individuals who do not use the assigned space according to the requirements stated above.
7. The study rooms are not intended to be used as office or conference space. Names may not be posted on doors.
8. Lost keys should be reported immediately to the Circulation Desk in Bird Library. A replacement key will be made available after payment of required charges.
9. Study room keys may not be duplicated.
10. Be sure to lock your door and take the key with you when you leave the room.
11. Study rooms are not to be used for storage.
12. Study rooms are not soundproof. Please be considerate of other library users.
13. Nothing is to be permanently posted or attached to walls or furniture.
14. Personal equipment such as computers, calculators, chargers, study lamps and desk clocks are permitted. All other electrical appliances including heating, cooking and food storage equipment are prohibited.
15. Prohibited items will be removed from the study room and taken to Library Security on the first floor of Bird Library.
16. Other furniture may not be moved into the study room.
17. The Libraries are not responsible for damage or loss of any personal property or other items left in the study room.

18. All circulating library materials in the room must be properly checked out to the assigned occupant. All items will be subject to regular loan policies, recall, and overdue fines and fees.
19. Periodicals, Reference books, and other non-circulating materials should not be left in the study room.
20. Regular inspections of study rooms will be made by library staff. Library items that are not checked out, overdue or non-circulating will be removed and held for a short time at the circulation desk after which time the items will be returned to the library shelves.
21. The Libraries will not receive or deliver mail or packages for study room occupants. Any such items delivered to the Libraries will be returned to the sender, and any costs incurred in doing so will be added to the study room occupant's library account.
22. Libraries staff members will deliver messages to study rooms in emergency situations only.
23. To protect patron privacy, Libraries staff will not divulge study room assignments to outside parties.
