Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or other reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

Syracuse University Libraries reserve the right to refuse to accept a duplication order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Statement

All duplication orders are accepted at the Special Collections Research Center’s discretion. I agree to not transfer any reproductions received from SCRC to any other institution or individual without written permission. I agree not to publish any reproductions received from SCRC in any form or through any medium whatsoever, including any form of electronic publication, and otherwise to observe any copyright restrictions and any conditions stipulated by SCRC pertaining to the duplication of materials. I understand that I may submit a written request to publish images, excerpts, transcriptions, and/or quotations at a later date. That request must be sent in to SCRC using its Request to Publish form. I further agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Special Collections Research Center, Syracuse University Libraries, and Syracuse University against all claims, demands, costs, and expenses incurred by copyright infringement or any other legal or regulatory cause of action arising from the use of the Center’s materials.

My signature indicates that I have read and understood the above statement and the Copyright Notice on this form.
