Make a Contribution

Name

Address

City     State     Zip

Phone number

Email

I would like to contribute funds.

☐ $1,000 ☐ $500 ☐ $250 ☐ $100 ☐ Other $________

Check enclosed, payable to Syracuse University

☐ Please charge my credit card

☐ VISA ☐ MASTERCARD

Card Number     Exp. Date

Signature

I would like to contribute collections.

☐ Artifacts     ☐ Business records

☐ Books or periodicals ☐ Personal papers

Return form to:

Special Collections Research Center
Syracuse University Libraries
222 Waverly Avenue
Syracuse, NY 13244-2010

Cover: photograph of World Health Organization training in Burma, 1951; back cover: “Man writing in notebook” photograph courtesy of Laubach Literacy International Records; inside, left to right: Paolo Freire and Alexander Charters, 1981 (photograph by Andrejs Ozolins); detail of a 1985 World Assembly of Adult Education poster; “People working at desks” photograph courtesy of Laubach Literacy International Records.
ABOUT DR. CHARTERS

Alexander N. Charters (above left, with Brazilian educator and author Paolo Freire) earned his Ph.D. in adult education from the University of Chicago in 1948. He served as assistant dean of adult education and then dean and vice-president for continuing education at Syracuse University. With his wife, Dr. Margaret Charters, he has been active in all aspects of adult education, from teaching and administration to organization, lecturing, consulting, and research.

The Charters Grants-in-Aid Program

» Up to $5,000 worth of grants are awarded most years.
» The amount of the award will depend upon the scope of the project outlined in the applicant’s proposal.
» For information on how to apply, see library.syr.edu/scrc/programs/grants.php

For additional information, please contact the Special Collections Research Center by e-mail: scrc@syr.edu or by phone: 315.443.9763.

Charters Grants-in-Aid Program
Special Collections Research Center
Syracuse University Libraries
222 Waverly Avenue
Syracuse, New York 13244-2010

Collection Strengths

» History and development of adult education as a discipline;
» Literacy efforts, such as Laubach Literacy International and Literacy Volunteers of America;
» Training methods for educators of adults;
» Records of adult education organizations.

The Charters Library of Resources for Educators of Adults

Syracuse University Libraries hold one of the largest and most comprehensive collections on the field of adult and continuing education. The materials come from all over the world and document the international history and development of the field, which includes literacy, human resource development, distance education, international development, andragogy, and more. The Charters Library is free and open to the public; adult education practitioners and educators are especially encouraged to utilize the collections. Materials include:

» More than 100 archival collections, containing correspondence, organizational records, publications, conference material, memorabilia, photographs, audio and video recordings, and more
» Records of the University Continuing Education Association and the Clearinghouse of Resources for Adult Educators
» 160 periodical titles, including many complete runs
» 220 newsletter titles

78 boxes of pamphlets
More than 500 titles from Syracuse University Publications in Continuing Education
More than 500 sound recordings
More than 100 video recordings

scrc.syr.edu/charterslibrary