

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS RESEARCH CENTER FACULTY FELLOWS PROGRAM CALL FOR PROPOSALS

OVERVIEW

The Syracuse University Libraries' Special Collections Research Center is now accepting proposals for two faculty fellows who would like to provide students with a one-of-a-kind opportunity to handle, analyze, and interpret SCRC's primary source materials in their classes. The SCRC Faculty Fellows Program aims to support innovative curriculum development and foster new ideas about how to transform the role of special collections in university instruction. Each fellow will receive a $5,000 stipend, a hands-on introduction to the collections, and ongoing course support.

The SCRC Faculty Fellows Program was made possible through the generosity of the Gladys Kriebel Delmas Foundation, which promotes the advancement and perpetuation of humanistic inquiry and artistic creativity by encouraging excellence in scholarship and in the performing arts, and by supporting research libraries and other institutions that transmit our cultural heritage.

ELIGIBILITY

- Open to all Syracuse University faculty.
- Proposals may be from any discipline taught on campus, but must be for the development or revision of a 3-credit course to be taught in Spring 2018.
- Course enrollment must be capped at 20 students.
- Preference will be given to courses with the potential to be integrated into the curriculum and taught on a recurring basis.
- Team-taught courses are not eligible at this time.

TERMS OF APPOINTMENT

- The fellowship period is during Summer 2017.
- Fellows are considered “in residence” at the Center and are expected to work in the Special Collections Reading Room for 4 consecutive weeks.
- Fellows must attend an orientation and participate in various workshop/support sessions and assessment activities relating to the program.
- At the end of the summer residency period, each Fellow will produce a comprehensive course syllabus and an annotated list of SCRC materials for class meetings and student assignments.
- The $5,000 stipend will be awarded upon completion of the summer residency and receipt of all required materials.
- The program does not provide housing or travel support.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

To apply, please submit the following materials as a single PDF file to ajsaluti@syr.edu no later than 5:00pm (EST) on April 14, 2017.

Late applications will not be considered.

Applicants will be notified of the selection committee’s decision by May 5, 2017.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

2-page curriculum vitae

Course description and draft syllabus

Completed application form

2-page proposal that explains your interest in the program and addresses the following questions:

- Which collections are most relevant to your proposed course?
- How will your course teach students to discover, request, and properly handle special collections materials? (For example, will you be requiring students to conduct independent research in the Special Collections Research Center’s reading room?)
- How many class sessions do you expect to hold in the Special Collections Research Center’s seminar room? (All sessions involving original materials must be held in the SCRC).
- How would you showcase your students’ work with special collections materials to the university community?
- How does your course relate to your department’s learning outcomes?
- How will you meet requirements for revising, proposing, and/or regularizing this course in your department and college?
